In This Issue!

Sharon Stone: Single, alone and hot!

In this new and bigger issue of GALA, ladies, you will find more of the top American beauties, more foreign lovelies, more pages, more color, better paper. Want to let us know how you like it?

She's a showstopper! And an actress.

Why? Because you can't resist.

What kind of love is this?

Why the words of his lips will never grow cold.

TROPICAL REVERIE

Tropic of the tropics is torrid, 21-year-old Sonja Romney, who represents the magic of the South Seas, the dream of flower-garlanded tawny beauties on some Utopian atoll. Breathe there a man with soul so dead that he never to himself hath said, "This is dreamland, far away from finance companies, mortgages, income taxes, fall-outs and other blessings of this modern world; so just let me dream my tropic reverie of a land that care forgot."

A dream daughter of the South Pacific, Sonja is as lovely as the gorgeous flowers that bloom there.

Exoticism extraordinary, with windows gray-green eyes she's a woman who'd send a spell over any man.

Born in Brooklyn, Ann Murray will have no trouble putting space in the lives of the celebrities who rub her at her 20" waist.

ANN'S FANS...

will be legion before another season of horse operas bites the dust on TV. Ann, an Easterner, is being groomed to be a bright star in the coming stampede of new Western thrillers.

Here at breakfast Ann Murray will have no trouble putting spirit in the lives of the cowboys who ride hard on our 24" screens

BUZZIN' AROUND

See
next page

The big buzz in the modeling biz is centered around a fresh, new blonde named, spily enough, Sunny Lynn. This 22-year-old eyelid is expected to become queen bee of the very competitive fashion field.

Over anxious Betty rubs her legs that keep her way out in front of any of her coeds.

In her push that she put, the leggy lady hardly gets up from her morning shower before the phone is ringing with exciting messages.

A fashion model who shuffles clothes, Buzzy looks quite lovely this way as she puts another pin in her bra.

The hoops hang around Buzzy like steel mitts, but she wears 'em by taping the flaps to her back and back in Oldbook.

Day's sparer will be shot at home, in the city or something more formal to sport parades and even

Held For Questioning

It was a GALA day when we picked up curvaceous model Gina Held for some glamor shots—then kept her a while longer for some questions. Object was to learn what a lush lapful like Gina, who lives alone in a small apartment in N.Y.C.—and has no Big Moment—does with all of her spare time.

It was easy to see that if Gina is single, it's not because she lacks what it takes to make men stop, look and admire.

A top model with the hair part of her career still in front of her. She's so busy she doesn't have much time for dates.

After work, she has dinner in eating, drinking and pop singing. Even her husband's neglected these days.

Look-Alikes . . .

These succulent samples of native sweets should answer once and for all the argument about which are better—the sun-kissed beauties of Florida, or of California. . . .

As alike as two cherries in a cocktail, Vera Gray (above, from Fla.) and Marie Mathews (from Calif.) amply prove neither state has a monopoly.

ARCTIC FIRE

Take a real nice gander at a real Icelandier. She's Elaine Desmond and she's come from the land of ice and snow to warm things up for the readers of GALA.

Elaine's svelte 37-22-36 figure and lovely blonde hair—which is as natural as seven or eleven—were a big hit with the glamor photographers of London where Elaine stopped off enroute to N. Y.

If Elaine's any criterion, maybe glamor photos should explore Iceland's possibilities.

Elaine wants to be an actress and has been studying hard to achieve that end. Every dollar she makes from glamor modeling and TV commercials goes for dramatic lessons. Incidentally, her pap was English, which explains name . . .

ANATOMY AWARD WINNER
OF '62

GALA's campaign to put the "beauty" back into beauty contests has paid off with a prize package in the shape — the ever so enchanting shape — of Eva Burdick.

Eva is a student at UCLA in California, where she is studying Economics and Modern History. She dreams of being the first girl out in space (but knows that if she breaks the right ones, outer space will be long and home-making will be her labor of love from that moment on).

A well-known artist, for whom Eva posed once in those photos leading us to see how her fantastic figure stacked up against other top names of the glamour and glee.

Our championship stamp (above) tells you how GALA thinks!

Eva's out-of-this-world build makes her tops our list of heavenly bodiest!

Here, here, said a beautiful body, unadorned, & admired by Nature for legend what she and growth can do for it.

Here, here, said a beautiful body, unadorned, & admired by Nature for legend what she and growth can do for it.

It must be the drops of things to come — when one of the most beautiful of earthly females wants to become the First Girl on the Moon!

Beauty is sometimes said to be a matter of viewpoint.
With Eva Sterling, however, there is not thing as a bad viewpoint! She's gorgeous from any angle!

One way to keep men from getting their dirty pining plans would be to keep girls like Marlene Brenner grounded

REASON FOR

Ever since time began, men have had a built-in urge to hijack hi-flying chicks like Marlene Brenner and carry them off to a cave in the hills or a penthouse in Manhattan. Marlene is a stewardess for Scandinavian Airlines, and the reason why men want to take off with her the minute they leave the ground are plain, man, plain!

Marlene doesn't need her uniform to cut a shapely figure or to prove she is an airline hottie... with the naked

HIJACKING...

Men are unbearably helpful, Marlene says. No matter how many times she shows them how to button their safety belts, they still keep calling for her to help

Of Danish ancestry, she is 17 years old and measures 24-22-34 when it counts most. Her hobbies are singing and making jazz

One way to keep men hanging close about posing photos would be to keep girls like Marianne Bremer grounded

REASON FOR

Ever since time began, men have had a built-in urge to hijack hot-flying chicks like Marianne Bremer and carry them off to a cave in the hills or a penthouse in Manhattan. Marianne is a stewardess for Scandinavian Airlines, and the reason why men want to take off with her the minute they leave the ground are plain, man, plain!

Marianne doesn't mind her uniform to cut a snappy figure or to prove she is an airline beauty — with the caveat

HIJACKING...

Men are unbelievably helpless, Madonna says. No matter how many times she shows them how to fasten their safety belts, they still keep calling her over to help.

Of course country-club's 19 years old and measures 36-23-36 when it isn't used. Her husband is sitting out modern jazz.

LINGERIE QUEEN

Phyllis Lowford's great work in lingerie is leading to bigger things. You'll soon see her in TV series.

These pix of Phyllis on a recent modeling assignment tell you more about her than 10,000 words could do.

Long, jet-black hair
...large dark eyes
...creamy skin...
pearly-white teeth
...luscious, ruby-red
lips... put them all together on a fabulous frame of whip-
cream curves—and,
proud you've got a Lingerie Queen!

Kim has club act that starts like this.

Room With A View

From Broadway to Beverly Hills, there's a string of hotels that do a terrific business whenever exotic dancer Kim Athas goes on a cross-country tour. They aren't the hotels Kim stays at, oddly enough—but the ones directly across the way! GALA has finally uncovered the reason for this. Yep, we did it by renting one of the rooms across the way!

To keep in shape for nightly chores, Kim practices all day in hotel room.

A fresh-air fiend, she keeps windows wide open. Result: a view like this!

Just as with any other line of work, Klor's trade has its status symbols. And it's generally agreed that Klor's are among the best in the business.

Kim isn't keen on the idea of calling her act "nude dancing." It says that on the posters, she whistles, but sounds, "Woah, I just sleep," she very modestly admits.

When on duty, she always asks for a hard seat "with a view." But it's the whimsical repetitive hint that really gets the crowd

SPRING IS COMING

It's in the spring when a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of beauty and newly-verdant Nature.

Whistling the spine into shape through the sky. Aline Manay creates a breathtaking study in soft silhouettes.

At Sunset...

At sunset, across the still of the sky, nature flings a multi-colored canvas. Like dancing flames, like rippling waves, like the roll of thousands of many-hued roses caught in a wind, the colors of the spectrum weave an exciting pattern in deference to the incoming night, as a beauty drinks in nature's very own beauty.

Watching the spectrum flare dash through the sky, Arline Hassay captures a breath-taking study in soft colors.

STELLA BY SUNLIGHT

Tasteful, big photo of Stella Jarrow-by sunlight-should inspire a soap as famous as "Stella, by Starlight".

New Raves Of The Runway

Run, don't walk to the nearest runway if Dee Milo, (Inset) or Eloise Jones
are heating up the bill.

When these terpsichoreans heat up the runways the mercury boils and audiences howl. Among exotics, they stand out like mink in a window full of dyed rabbit.

In case you're confused there is another de Milo—Venus de Milo, that is—but that old girl hasn't so much as wiggled an ear for a thousand generations whereas Dee Milo, well, when it comes to wiggling, this doll is a wiggler par-excellence.

Dee's act is designed to show off the suppleness of her body. But on stage, or off, Dee is a mighty active gal. To keep her figure lithe and lovely, the Dee-lectable Dee Milo makes with the exercise.

In 1906 an earthquake hit San Francisco and really tore up the town—in 1961 Elaine Jones hit the same stretch of real-estate and, though the city recovered from the quake, we wonder if it will ever get over the heat that Elaine generated.

Elaine has a motion that creates commotion, and when this lass starts tossin' her torso, the men in the audience start flippin' their lids.

There is a lot of women in the world but only one like me—my steps, the way I have my style that can make you feel.

When we told One little we wanted to see some pictures of her, as if we were and would like to be the same.

When arms are brought to bear, both Lee and Grant are great at putting down advances. So there'll be no big Civil War about it, we not Robert E. and Ulysses S.

Grant Vs. Lee

Apprentices was never like this. If it had been all those female and not identical Green and Constance...

The Girl Who was taught to preserve the Lul us and would we be asked to say we're glad it was preserved? Not at all, but we're glad as possible and Judy

Jeri Fulton

DREAMBOAT, NOT STEAMBOAT

The Polina who fooled around with steamboats was developing a mighty vaguely looking tub—nothing like this one and might be nearby and we have to the shape of a dreamboat named Jari.

Jari Fulton's no relation to Robert, the inventor who made paddle wheels churn the world. But the man whose heart she can't churn isn't been invented yet!

And for the moment, I'd search for any body of water bigger than a bathtub. While others struggle for this rare commodity

Change of Mood

Barbara Martin is a girl of many moods—and in any of them she's just the kind of girl dear old Dad is hoping you'll bring home to Mother. Babe can bubble, blaze, bewitch and be-dazzle. And when this platinum-blond beauty turns up the heat, a photographer has to work fast—before the lens gets all steamed up and picture-taking is impossible!

From a laughing mood (above), Babe easily slips into one of sultry moods that nobody couldn't fail to get results

Liebestraum . . . Following her golden locks on soft pillows, Jane Strasser lays herself down to sleep—perhaps home to the cat, as youth is sweet to her of princes and palaces and a foreign sports car with Troy Donahue behind the wheel.

BLACK- EYED SUSAN

A new model, fresh out of Dallas and a great favorite with those Texas he-men, snazzy Susan Starr is now living in New York's Greenwich Village. Using the money she earns by modeling, Susan is studying to be "as good an actress as Anna Magnani—at least!" She loves Greenwich Village, altho she does miss those great open spaces of Texas.

A sensitive study in black and white, as model, mood and light blend to achieve a symphony of muted shadows and subtly rounded, full-bodied highlights that evoke early Rembrandt with their capturing configuration.

Joana is 30 years old, 5'2"
tall and measures 38-34-34
from bust to hips — by way

What's Dune?

Somebody's sunbathing the sun down on the sands, that's what's dune. Who's dune it? Some body's—name of Jo, or Merrill—that's what!

Joyce loves the sun, the sand and the smell of dunes being scented by a sea-breeze. Joyland who will have their hair all fixed for getting just about the time honey dunes getting good going come from Old Man, Gals. That's being, that!

Before becoming a bonded dancer, Joynt was a beauty at a Woodstock club, a dancer in a Street City club, a beauty contest winner and a model. Today she's taking a two-month vacation, before trying her luck in New York.

SOME FAUNA WITH FLORA

Flora Belmont is a favorite of photographers from coast to coast. Here she gives $644 her impression (left) of a figure model on her first assignment and (right) a movie starlet avoiding the advances of a big-time producer.

Behind the scenes are the same forces that are at work in almost every other Central American hemisphere. Gender roles in Latin America and throughout the rest of the world have changed little since the 1950s, with the only great change of course the gold standard being the only alternative. The second hand system is a critical one, rather than a dead end. www.USAID.gov

The grayer texture in the perfect corner they "kissed" that in a few days' time will give birth to a single, extraordinary olive tree is a true discovery of the human race has glowing green walls in the blue-castell that shed an extraordinary glow on the walls and the ground. The experience of an extraordinary tree with a different texture.

CZECH AND DOUBLE-CHECK

This glowing Czech was worth a double check. Věra, who'll soon be on TV, attracts her "golden glow" to morning dips in cool pools. She likes tall, strong men and short, weak drinks.

Checking up on voluptuous Věra Brysová, spicy, new import from Prague, was the most sporting thing our females has done since college. Věra loves swimming, sailing, deep-sea fishing, riding — any sport that takes action. She's a bundle of energy — and what a bundle! Who's to disagree?

MASKED

All faithful Black Fox and true connoisseurs of beauty will recognize our latest Mystery Miss in a jiffy. The mask hides the outstanding features for which she's best known—her big, beautiful eyes—but the rest of her is a dead give-away. No other girl anywhere has quite the same curves as this cute, shapely twentysomething named...

The mask covers a lot, of course, but there are enough points of identification left to make her come easy to recall. However, for those who can't recognize a tiny little number 1 by its chains alone, the Mystery Miss reveals all on page 42!

Keats Was Right

A thing of beauty
Is a joy forever,
said the poet
John Keats. His famous Endymion proved for sure his case is proved, if need be, by Bob O'Neil.

As Endymion goes on... its lust now increases—no doubt that's the more you look at her—and it shall never fade into nothingness—our shall last, for who could forget the pure beauty of this and a half

GLOVELY

Fashion experts say a girl isn't well dressed unless she's wearing a hat and gloves. Lucille Benson agrees, but admits her costume tells a little bit about what a well-dressed gal would wear to a cocktail party. After all, she says, a girl does feel naked without a hat.

Beth Marple (Michelle Johnson) and Ben Thompson (Tom Hanks) offered comfort by the fireplace, close to the movie colony, but they prefer to remain in the magical spaces in "Home" they were born.

END

Back when Gods and Goddesses roamed the earth, someone captured the perfect female shape of the Goddess of Love in a statue—now famed as the Venus de Milo. G.A.L.A.'s girl-Sandra Paula—is stacked just like the Venus de Milo—and, furthermore, she's got arms!

Sandra has the perfect physical proportions of that famous Greek statue of Venus.

This Mississippi Mer is going to the top—and is step-along with Perry Come to her side of the "top"
